

Facilities provided for women students

The institute promotes Gender Equity in admissions, recruitment, administrative and academic activities.

- a) Girls waiting halls are provided in the campus.
- b) The Girl students are encouraged to participate in co-curricular and Extra-Curricular activities.
- c) The institute celebrates Women's Day in a grand manner.
- d) The institute has a policy of appreciating the faculty without gender bias.
- e) The institute gives the highest priority of safety and security of the girl students and faculty.
- f) Women Empowerment Cell encourages the girls come forward to talk about women related issues and share their experiences and views regarding their status in the society.
- g) To bridge the gap between students and teachers by maintaining a cordial relationship between them so that girl students can open up freely to share their personal problems.